Subject: State of Statistics Report

Dear [REDACTED]

I work at the Statistics Authority [REDACTED] I am currently working on a project with the RSS to develop a 'State of Statistics' report which hopes to be the first of an annual report looking at the state of statistics in the UK.

One of the key sections of the report will look at the role of regulation and fact checking of statistics, something which you are heavily involved with in your role at Full Fact.

I know that you are extremely busy at the moment in the run up to the election so at this moment in time I wanted to ask whether you would be willing to have a conversation with me after the election. This would look at the role that Full Fact plays and also more widely at how statistics are understood and utilised by members of the public and government today.

I hope that you are able to contribute to this exciting project. If you require any further information please do let me know.

Kind regards,

[REDACTED]

Hi [REDACTED]

Great initiative, smart idea. I'd love to. May I suggest including some of my colleagues too — or even coming in and meeting with the team?

Best wishes

Hi [REDACTED]

I am really glad that you are keen on the idea. It would be really helpful if I could meet you and your team.

Would you like to suggest some dates for when I might be able to come and visit?

Many thanks,

Hi [REDACTED]

I hope that you are well.

I am writing to ask whether [REDACTED] has been able to identify any dates in the next couple of weeks when I might be able to come and meet you and the team?

Many thanks,

[REDACTED]
