Monday 6th October.
The event will be held in central Edinburgh.

The purpose of the event is to give users
and producers of crime statistics an opportunity to discuss
The Scottish Crime
and Justice Survey
and Recorded Crime
in Scotland. There will be a small number of presentations and a lot of group conversations about the uses,
potential uses, quality,
comparability,
accessibility
and presentation of the statistics.

Space is limited and we would like to hear a range of views from a cross-section of users. We are therefore inviting expressions of interest in attending the event
by the 12 September,
and confirmation of
whether a place has been secured will be emailed to all by the 17th September. All presentations and
outputs will be made available and
we welcome
comments and suggestions on our statistics by phone or email at any time.
