

Well written [REDACTED], I was also horrified by the killing of George Floyd, but no less than the killing of any human being by another, or the targeting of an individual based on racist decisions.

Whilst I also abhor racism and can appreciate how some will feel Black Lives Matter is a necessary movement, I feel passionately that all lives matter and would rally behind a completely non-political anti-racist movement where skin colour, religion or sexuality play no differential role in how any individual is treated by any other.

I believe that the political aspects of this are more of an issue than many people realise and I am concerned by any alignment with the politics of movements like Black Lives Matter.

I generally keep my political views private but in this instance my strong anti-racist feelings compelled me to respond in agreement with your 5 proposals.

We should all treat each other how we would wish to be treated.

If anyone wishes to reply to [REDACTED]'s Monday morning fireworks, can they keep their reply to [REDACTED] rather than all +1000 of us.

Regards,

All social research, including the collection of statistics, is political because the areas examined and the questions asked are designed to give a perspective on the workings of society and address the specific data needs of governments and funding bodies. The decision that certain questions matter and others do not is a highly political one.

There is no such thing as political neutrality and the lure of this concept could be no more than a desire to maintain the status quo.

Hope to discuss further with ██████ privately.

HI

Please please, please, when replying to [REDACTED] just reply to him and not to all.

Cheers

To be fair if the original email was sent to all for all to see then everybody should be entitled to see all replies

I do not believe that this is the correct channel for this conversation. It is making it even more political and polarising.

Please remove my name from this too.

Well said [REDACTED], Additionally removing 'you' from [REDACTED] mailing list wont make any difference – youre not on social media you are at work.

Any emails you receive that are not relevant to you , delete them.

I'm adding to nuisance replies, I know, but can I point out that the lists used were standard circulation lists so it's no use asking to be removed from them. Can I suggest that someone sets up a Yammer channel for those who wish to continue the debate?

Kind regards

You cannot be removed from it but you can ignore the rest of the reply alls and it will automatically go into you deleted items:

Now, here's how to ignore a conversation:

1. Select the message in the Reading pane.
2. Click the Home tab, and click Ignore in the Delete group, or press [Ctrl]+[Delete], or right-click the message and choose Ignore from the resulting context menu.
3. Click Ignore Conversation.

According to American Statistics, a black American's death in a police encounter is 2.5 times higher than a white American citizen. These shocking figures reveals that black Americans are more vulnerable to death than the white Americans. The black lives matter movement is step forward to show to the world that a black man's life is as important as that of a white man's life.

Islam religion is deadly against racism and has a golden principal that all men /women are equal and superiority of a person depends upon his/her devotion dedication for humanity. In the last famous speech at the time of Haj, the Holy Prophet Muhammad (peace be upon Him) categorically declared“ An Arab has no superiority over a non Arab and a white person has no superiority over a black person and the standard of superiority solely depends upon one's piousity.

Thanks
