

Article

Disabled people's experiences with activities, goods and services in the UK, easy read: 2022

Easy read report about what it is like for disabled people in the UK to take part in activities, use services and buy things, and what they think could make these easier.

Contact:
Dawn Snape, Shona Horter,
Heidi Smith, Siannan Kerrigan
equalities@ons.gov.uk
+44 1633 455674

Release date:
18 July 2022

Next release:
To be announced

Table of contents

1. About this easy read report
2. How to download this easy read report
3. Tell us what you think of this easy read report

1 . About this easy read report

This easy read report helps people understand:

- who the Office for National Statistics (ONS) is
- what we wanted to find out
- who answered our questions
- what we found out
- what disabled people thought should happen next
- how to get more information

2 . How to download this easy read report

To download this easy read report, click or tap the blue, underlined words in the following sentence:

Download Disabled people's experiences with activities and services in the UK, easy read \(PDF, 3.486 KB\)

3 . Tell us what you think of this easy read report

We would like to know what you think of this easy read report. This is so that we can improve future easy read reports.

You can tell us what you think about this easy read report by answering two questions in our Disabled services easy read survey.

You can also get to the survey by clicking the link at the very end of the report itself.